ELLIS ORGAN RECITAL SET

MISSOULA--

A free public recital at the University of Montana on Sunday (Oct. 3) will feature John C. Ellis, organist, assisted by Laurence Perry, harpsichord.

The program, sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music, will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the UM Music Recital Hall.

Ellis' background includes extensive organ and piano study at the University of Michigan, where he received his Master of Music degree in 1967.

He secured a position at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, Tex., where he was instructor of organ and theory.

In 1969 Ellis joined the UM Department of Music and he is presently an instructor of piano and music theory.

Perry, chairman of the music department, joined the UM faculty in 1959. He holds two degrees from Cornell College and is a member of the American Guild of Organists, the American Musicological Society and Pi Kappa Lambda, national music honorary.

The Sunday evening program will include selections for organ and harpsichord by Johann Sebastian Bach, Johannes Brahms, Antonio Soler, Marcel Dupre, Jehan Alain and Franz Liszt.
